The News.

The North America, with Liverpool dates to the 4th inst., arrived at Portland on Monday night. She brings but little news of interest. The new British Ministry have published their programme. From India we learn that Sir Colin Campbell was preparing to invade Oude at the head of 25,000 troops. The Liverpool Breadstuff Market is dull and lower. Money market quiet and unchanged.

A very angry and personal altercation occurred in the U. S. Senate, during the protracted night session of Monday, resolved upon by the Locomptonites to force through their pet swindle.

The Legislature of Utah has sent into Congress a memorial and resolutions setting forth their grievances, and making sundry requests of the government.

Our Legislature transacted a variety of unimportant business yesterday. The talk of a recess is not at all relished by the People.

The New York produce market yesterday drooped somewhat under the influence of the foreign news. Money was easy and stocks again up. In our own market, there was no marked change. Choice lots of milling wheat readily command 66@67 cents.

The weather, yesterday, was by no means pleasant; fog and mist obscuring the sky and thickening the atmosphere.

An adjourned meeting, in reference to the proposed Charter Amendments, is to be held at the Albany this evening.

A variety of articles and communications, on topics of interest to our citizens, will be found in th is morning's paper.

AMERICANS IN CONSTANTINOPLE.—The following is an extract from a letter by W. Edward Peters, U. S. Vice Consul at Constantinople to his father, Rev. D. Peters of New York. Dated Jan. 30th, 1858:

We have had thus far the severest winter that has ever occurred in Constantinople within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. The snow is more than two feet deep on a level, and has been almost continually falling for thirty days.—Yesterday Mr. Brown and myself achieved an exploit which was never before accomplished in this place, and which excited great admiration, and has fixed our names as enterprising Americans. During the late war some one imported a sleigh made in Albany, which has been here ever since on sale. We got it up, put two spanking black horses before it, covered with bells and went to see all the Grand Turks at the Sublime Porte. We had two guards in front of us, to clear the streets, and a crowd of I don't know how many behind us. The Turks were perfectly delighted. To close the performance, we passed up and down before the Sultan's Palace, and finished with great eclat."

THE UNION BANK DEFALCATION—HEAVY BAIL.—Jacob H. Mott, as an accomplice of Brotherson, the defaulting book keeper of the Union Bank, New York, was, on Thursday evening, delivered into the custody of the Sheriff, and is now confined in the Eldridge street jail. His bail was fixed at $140,000, the reported amount of the defalcation. The Times says:

The prisoner, Mott, is a son of the late Jordon Mott. The latter left an estate, situated on the Bloomingdale Road, between Fiftieth and Sixtieth streets, which, it is said, if sold to day under the red flag, would bring over a million of dollars. This large property was left to be equally divided between the prisoner and three brothers, all of whom are still living. They have not deemed it advisable yet to make the division, but it is said are holding on to it to get the benefit of a great by expected increase in its value, after the Central Park has been laid out.

Up to Saturday Brotherson had not been arrested, and it was thought he had taken the Boston steamer for Europe.

"GOOD NEWS FROM JANESVILLE."—Under this head, the News parades an extract from "an intelligent and wide-awake democrat" at Janesville, who writes that the Standard is revived as "a thorough-going Lecompton Constitution advocate," and that it will be "an uncompromising enemy of everything that has the taint of Douglasism." The taint of Douglasism! It strikes us that the nomination of the editor of the News, as P. M. for Milwaukee, had that "taint" decidedly. But "the Douglas" was all powerful then, and the "taint" greatly in request with all who wanted office.

Shocking Affair in Dodge County.

On Saturday last, at 2 o'clock p. m., Robert Schmidt, of Theresa, in Dodge county, shot down in the street of that place Harriet Seidler, a young lady about twenty years of age. The parties were engaged to be married about one year ago, and Schmidt had come over from St. Paul, Van Buren Co. Michigan, where he has resided about a year, to fulfil the engagement; but the parents of the young lady objected to the marriage, in consequence of which it was arranged between the lovers, that Schmidt should shoot first the young lady, and then shoot himself. He executed his design, so far as the young lady was concerned, but failed to shoot himself, on account of the loss of the cap on his gun.

After failing in this, he ran and threw himself into the river, with the intention to drown himself, but was rescued by persons who saw him. He is now arrested, and awaits a trial.—The charge, which was fine shot, entered the left breast of the young lady, and inflicted a horrible wound, of which she expired Sunday morning, about 2 o'clock. She had her senses up to the last, and charged her parents with being responsible for the awful deed, and acquitted her lover of all blame. The parties, as their names indicate, were Germans. We are indebted to Hon. N. M. Juneau, who was an eye witness of the awful spectacle, for the above facts.—News, of yesterday.

A DISTRESSING CASE—INSANITY OF MRS. LOGAN.—The other day, the celebrated actress, Miss Eliza Logan, came up from Baltimore to this city, having in charge her mother, who is hopelessly insane. She was accompanied by her two brothers. They were on their way to Columbus, Ohio, where the unfortunate old lady is to be confined in the lunatic asylum. Captain James Waters, upon whose train they were passengers, rendered all the assistance in his power, and devoted most of the time during the night to the mother and distressed daughter and sons.—The mother, who was thus bereft of reason during the past month, required constant watching. She raved and struggled wildly about in her seat, and it was necessary to administer chloroform every few hours to render her at all manageable. Miss Logan, it is said, was almost heart-broken, and she seemed to experience a feeling of unutterable grief at the lamentable condition of her mother, to whom she is much attached.—Cor. Wheeling Intelligencer.

The Amendments to the Charter.

The amendments proposed to be made to our City Charter have now been published in all our city papers, and, thanks to the two meetings at Albany Hall, have been very generally read and discussed. So far as we can learn they are, in the main, acceptable to the great body of our Tax-Payers, but extremely distasteful to the large tribe of Office-holders and Office seekers, whose powers and perquisites they will materially abridge. These amendments contemplate radical changes in the City Government:—1. As to the Constitution of the City Councils. 2. As to the opening, improving, grading, paving, &c., the streets, alleys and public grounds. 3d. As to the annual assessments and valuation of property. We have a word or two to say to our readers on each point.

As to the first, it is proposed to substitute, for the present Board of Aldermen, consisting of three from each Ward, two Boards, Aldermen and Councillors, the first consisting of one Representative from each Ward, and the second of two. The reasons for and advantages of the proposed change, are so obvious that we need not waste time in recapitulating them.—Suffice it to say, that this organization of the city Councils is the one which prevails in almost every city in the Union; and has been proved by long experience to be the best, safest and most economical that can be adopted. The Mayor presides over each Board, which must sit on separate days, and the Clerk of the Common Council is Clerk for each Branch thereof. The Aldermen and Councillors are all to be elected annually.

The second change relates to the Street Commissioners. Under the present system the Aldermen of the several Wards are the Street Commissioners. For these twenty-seven officers the Amendments substitute three, to be chosen annually by the electors of the city. Upon the Board thus constituted will devolve the powers and duties now vested in and discharged by the Aldermen; but before any work can be commenced by them it must be submitted to and approved by the Common Council. If our readers will look carefully through the various provisions relating to the Street Commissioners, they will, we think, become entirely satisfied that the new system, in point of economy, efficiency, and fair dealing, is vastly better than the present one; and that while it will ensure the carrying forward, cheaply, rapidly and honestly, of all needed improvements, it will effectually protect lot-owners from the plundering schemes of the hungry tribe who have lived upon the City these few years past, and who have mercilessly fleeced so many tax-payers, by unnecessary, wanton and wasteful jobs of grading, paving, filling lots, opening streets, and creating, or vacating alleys. The Commissioners are entrusted, necessarily, with a good deal of power, but they are kept in check by a number of well devised provisions, and can do nothing without the sanction of the Council, and the knowledge of the public.

Upon the third subject, the vital one of ASSESSMENT, the proposed change is equally an improvement. Now, we elect nine assessors, one from each Ward, and each one tries to make the best bargain for his own Ward, and not unfrequently does a little business on his own account. The consequence is and will be, while this system lasts, that the assessments are unfair, unequal and unsatisfactory. We need not dwell upon this topic, for it is disagreeably familiar to all our readers. Gross injustice and glaring inequality, in Assessment and Taxation, has been the rule, rather than the exception, in our city, these five years past. The new system substitutes for these nine separate, independent and antagonistic Assessors, a single one for the whole City, to be appointed by the Mayor, subject to the approval of the Council. It cannot be doubted that this Assessor would be carefully selected and that, acting for the entire city, he would not be influenced by those local considerations which, inevitably or otherwise, operate upon Ward Assessors. The Assessor, with the Mayor, Comptroller, Treasurer and City Attorney, constitute the Board of Review, before which any parties aggrieved by the assessment, will have ample opportunity for redress. Who can doubt that this would be a vast improvement upon our present system?

These are the three great changes proposed in the Amendments. There are many minor ones, of considerable importance, which we have not space to mention now. We may however, call attention to the retrenchment in the salaries of City officers; the reduction in the number of these officers, and the numerous guards and checks thrown around the City Treasury.

A violent opposition is made to all these amendments by Alderman HADLEY and others, connected with the present City Administration. This opposition is natural enough. The incumbents of office, the dispensers of patronage, the awardors of contracts, the distributors of fat jobs, look with a jealous eye upon every move calculated to limit their power, and curtail their patronage.

Alderman HADLEY, deprived of his Street Commissionership, could no longer muster his little army of graders, officered by his contractors, and march them to Democratic Caucuses to secure his nomination, or to the polls to carry his election, or to Albany Hall to disturb and break up a Tax-Payers' meeting. Other Aldermen, by the passage of these Amendments, might also find themselves deprived of their "rails," and unable any longer to dictate to the Democracy, dragoon the Tax-Payers, and live at free quarters on the city. But Alderman HADLEY, with his usual plausibility, affects to favor some change in the City Charter, only not now. Wait, he says, till summer, then call a Convention, make a new Charter and submit it to the People. That is well enough, perhaps, for the future, but how does it help us in our present straight? Our whole city is crying out for instant relief, and Alderman HADLEY coolly invites them to take it easy and wait another year! Unless these amendments pass, during the present session of the Legislature, now drawing towards its close, no change in the Charter can be made till next year. This is just what Alderman HADLEY wants. Do our TAX-PAYERS agree with him? If not, let them speak and act, and that promptly and resolutely.

But again, urges our Aldermanic Oily Gammon, "the People" should be consulted about these amendments. None of your "Star-Chamber" Committee doings. No cooking up amendments in private and forcing them through the Legislature without so much as saying "by your leave" to "the People." We gladly hail these symptoms of amendment in Ald. HADLEY. No man has offended so often, or so grievously, in this very matter. For year after year, in his double capacity as Alderman and Legislator, he has concocted and carried through amendment after amendment to the City Charter, doing away with all its balances, removing its checks, giving illimitable power to the Council to issue bonds and incur debts, and, in the end, utterly destroying what was originally a good Charter. But who ever heard Ald. HADLEY, during all this time, propose to submit his radical and ruinous amendments to "the People?" Nobody! That was not his "cue" then, and everybody appreciates the motive which prompts him to take it now.

But however place-men, office-seekers and demagogues may revile and oppose, we trust that the Tax-payers and Property-owners of our City will give these amendments their best consideration; not doubting that the more they examine, the better they will like them, and that in the end they will give them a general and hearty support. In this confident belief, we commend them to the speedy and favorable action of the State Legislature.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—There was a regular meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening last. Sundry accounts, petitions, &c., were offered and appropriately referred.

A communication was received from the Chief Engineer, giving the result of the election for Chief and Assistant Engineers and Wardens of the Milwaukee Fire Department, on the 15th instant. The nominations made by the Firemen were unanimously confirmed by the Council.

Upon the petition of citizens in the Sixth Ward, the Chief of Police was instructed to remove the Toll gate on the Lisbon Plank Road outside of the City limits.

Some discussion ensued in regard to the location of the Wood and Hay Market. Ultimately the Ordinance on the subject was so amended as to remove the Wood and Hay from the Seventh to the Fifth Ward, on South Water, Clinton, Reed and Lake streets. The Ordinance to take effect from and after the 20th inst. Subsequently this vote was reconsidered, and the whole subject referred to a special Committee.

A petition was received from J. A. HASBROUCK, Harbor Contractor, asking the City to give him $25,000 in City Bonds, on account, and without prejudice to Mr. H. or the City, touching the claim of the former. Ald. Prentiss introduced an ordinance, in conformity with the prayer of the petitioner, which was immediately taken up and passed.

The bill of Mr. J. F. Birchard (amounting to $2,273) for furnishing the Council rooms, was discussed at length and laid over till next meeting.

Alderman HADLEY offered a Preamble and Resolutions against the proposed Amendments to the City Charter, which were adopted, of course—our City Fathers having decidedly no taste for Retrenchment or Reform.

The application of Peter Drummond, to be paid for injuries received in being thrown out of his wagon, while crossing the Kinnickennic bridge last summer, was referred to a select committee.

After some further unimportant business the Council adjourned until Monday evening next.

For the Daily Sentinel.

The Straight Cut.

GEN. R. KING—Dear Sir:—Accompanying this please find a chart of the new Cut or Harbor of this city. The soundings were taken yesterday by a number of our most experienced captains, together with our marine inspectors, and may be relied on as correct.

You will perceive that it is unsafe for any vessel drawing over ten feet of water, to attempt the passage, and it would be still worse to do so in the case of an easterly blow, accompanied with a heavy sea, as vessels drawing seven feet of water would be apt to strike bottom between the seas.

The Common Council should take immediate steps to deepen the water in the cut, so at least to make a channel the width of the entrance, of the depth of twelve feet—fourteen feet would still be better. As it now is, with all the expense already laid out, it is a mere trap for nav igation.

Truly yours,

JOHN THORSEN.

MILWAUKEE, March 16th, 1858.

[This is a matter which should engage the prompt attention of our City Council and Board of Trade. The old Government Harbor is out of repair, and the new one at the Straight Cut, which has cost the city so large an amount and was contracted to have fourteen feet water, has only scant ten feet! As navigation is close at hand, no time should be lost in dredging the channel of the "Straight Cut" to the proper depth. The cost, we are told, need not exceed three, or four thousand dollars.

We shall endeavor to publish the chart above referred to for the information of our readers.—The soundings were carefully and accurately taken by Captains THORSEN, STEWART, MERRILL, COLLINS and others, and may be relied upon.—We should to know, by the way, if scant ten foot water in the New Harbor fulfils the conditions of the contract? Are not the contractors bound to give us fourteen feet?

A CARD.

TABLEAUX SCENES AND OLD FOLK'S CONCERT, to be reproduced at Albany Hall, Friday evening, March 19th, 1858. The ladies of the South Presbyterian Church and Society, respectfully announce that by request of numerous gentlemen present at the Festival on Tuesday evening last, and also in accordance with the united suggestions of the Press, they will repeat select portions of the Tableaux with the "Old Folks' Concert," at Albany Hall, on Friday evening next, March 19th.

Refreshments of Ice Cream and cake during the evening. Admission, at the door, twenty-five cents.

A DOWN EASTER'S IDEA OF CHICAGO.—The Gospel Banner, [Me.,] says "Chicago is a poor place for a Yankee. The climate gives him the ague fever. The water brings on the diarrhœa. The food, as cooked by the suckers, produces dyspepsia. The whiskey, tinctured with strychinen, makes him crazy. Or if a temperance man, three per cent. a month is sure to bring on the blues. Throughout the city, home-sick men are plentier than anything else. No more wise and prosperous men will emigrate thither by our advice."

JUSTICE TO NO. 3.—In our brief allusion to the little "scrimmage" at the Firemen's Election, Monday, it was stated that some Members of Engine Co. No. 3 were mixed up in the fight. This was a mistake. Number Three had no hand in it, but, obedient to the commands of their officers, kept aloof and helped to maintain the good name of the Fire Department.

HOUSES AND FURNITURE FOR SALE, OR TO RENT.—Persons in search of a pleasant, comfortable and furnished dwelling, at a cheap rent, are referred to the advertisement of Mr. J. S. Fill, more, in this morning's paper.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—This being the Anniversary of Ireland's Patron Saint, the sons of Erin in our city will celebrate it with the customary festivities. The entertainment at Young's Hall to-night will be an attractive one, and no doubt all who attend will share in the enjoyment.

MONEY LOST.—Any person who has picked up a roll of bills, amounting to fifty dollars, will have an excellent opportunity of showing the world that he is honest, by leaving the bills at this office. "An honest man," etc.

THE OPERA NEXT MONDAY.—We remind our readers that the Opera of "the Magic Flute" is to be given by our Musical Society, on Monday evening next. It will be admirably performed, the utmost pains having been taken in the rehearsals, &c. Those wishing to secure seats, or obtain tickets, had better apply without delay, since the number is necessarily limited and a large proportion already sold.

CITY ATTORNEY.—MR. GEORGE A. WOODWARD, a young lawyer of fine promise and a fair practice, announces himself, in the News, of yesterday, as a candidate for City Attorney. He has all the ability requisite to fill the office with credit and success.

Mr. ALEXANDER C. FRASER, a member of the Milwaukee Bar, in good standing, also announces himself as a candidate for the City Attorneyship.

STEALING.—Three boys, aged from 14 to 18 years, named George Hill, David McGrath and William Manning were arrested Monday for stealing a quantity of spoons, knives and forks, &c., from the Schooner Juniata Patton, in the river, and selling the same to a woman named Stoct, who keeps a store for the sale of second hand articles on Spring St. Manning was discharged. Hill and McGrath were held to bail in the sum of $500 each for their appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was a dark, damp, drizzly, misty, murky day. India rubber was your only wear. The crossings-sweepers plied their brooms industriously, and picked up many coppers from grateful pedestrians in polished boots, or expansive crinoline. Spring comes on apace.

CLEAN THE STREETS!—Mud abounds in our streets. Many occupants have taken the trouble to clean out the gutters and rake up the mud into heaps. But the heaps are not carried off, as they should be, and the passing teams distribute the mud again.

THE MADISON POST-OFFICE.—The Madison Patriot gives currency to a rumor that Mr. JONES, the present P. M. at the Capital, has been re-appointed, notwithstanding the earnest efforts of Mr. CALKINS, of the Argus, and other aspirants, to get the place.

☞ There is to be a great auction sale of dry goods, at Caleb Wall's Auction Room, on Thursday morning. Read his advertisement.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

The Superior Chronicle of the 2d inst., says:

For several days last week the weather was very mild, the thermometer, on Friday, ascending to sixty-two degrees in the shade. This mild spell has left us entirely free from ice, and the ice remaining in the lake is not sufficient to obstruct navigation. During the entire winter we have not had sufficient snow to accommodate the ordinary demands of travel.

MARQUETTE BAY FREE FROM ICE.—From a private letter received by Campbell & Bro., we learn that on the evening of the 25th ult., the Bay of Marquette was entirely free from ice, and the weather warm and spring-like.—Chicago Press, March 16th.

ST. CLAIR FLATS IMPROVEMENT.—The bill of Hon. Israel T. Hatch, making an appropriation of $50,000 for the further improvement of these dangerous obstructions to the commerce of the Lakes, is, we learn, likely to pass without difficulty. The observations of Col. J. D. Graham, of the Topographical Engineers, and the officer in command at this station, made in 1855, are fraught with interest. From them we learn that property to the amount of $229,731,456 50 passed over the flats during navigation season; equal to $1,192,232 72 per day. Col. G's plan, as matured, embraces a channel 800 feet wide, 12 feet deep, and 8,940 feet long, and to cost $100,000, of which $60,000 has been already appropriated, and the contract awarded to D. D. Bagley, of Buffalo, who has made considerable headway with the works. As soon as the Spring opens he will resume operations with four dredging machines and a steam tug, and, if necessary, he will have more. He will continue operations until the whole of the last appropriation is consumed. It is hoped that Mr. Hatch's bill will pass before that time, and if it should, Mr. Barton will continue his operations on the same contract. The $60,000 now asked will probably be sufficient to complete the whole of the proposed work—As soon as the work, which is insignificant in itself, but almost boundless in the good results that will follow from it, shall be completed, the commerce of the West will receive an impetus it has not experienced since the opening of the Erie Canal. Col. Graham estimated that the value of property and merchandize passing over the Flats, (estimate at over $200,000,000 last year,) would increase thereby 50 ⅌ cent.—Chicago Daily Union, March 16.

The Canadian screw steamship Co.'s steamer North America, with Liverpool advices of the 3d inst., four days later than the Canada, arrived at this port last night, and full files of papers for the New York Associated Press, were dispatched this morning via Boston, and will be due in New York at midnight.

The Cunard steamship Arabia, from New York, on the 17th, arrived at Liverpool on Sunday, the 28th ult.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Parliament was in session on the 1st inst. The House of Commons, after the transaction of some formalities, adjourned till the 12th inst.

In the House of Lords the Earl of Derby read his inaugural speech. He had no doubt that the exertions of Sir Colin Campbell, and of the troops under his command, would lead to a successful result; and when the mutiny was fully suppressed it would be the duty of the government to undertake the task of pacifying and tranquillizing the empire. He then referred to the Chinese war, and expressed his satisfaction, notwithstanding that he condemned the cause of the war, at the success which had attended the British army. He added, now that Canton had fallen, it would be the duty of the government to make, with the least possible delay, a sufficient and honorable peace, so that commerce between that country and China might be re-established. He then adverted to the relations of the government with France, and urged the necessity of remaining on friendly terms with that country.

He insisted on the importance to France and Europe of the Emperor's life, and indignantly denounced the atrocious attempt to assassinate him. He made great allowance for the indignation displayed by the French people; nevertheless he did not believe that the address of the French Colonels gave a true representation of feelings of the French army. From what he knew of the Emperor, he felt satisfied that it was his sincere wish to keep on terms of amity with England.

He thought this time not opportune for any change, but, indifferent to the vote of the House of Commons, he was prepared to yield, and a modified bill, as suggested by Lord Ellenborough would be presented in regard to Parliamentary reform. The government would earnestly direct their endeavors to the preparation which would be introduced at the next session.

The Foreign Secretary, Lord Malmesby, was preparing a reply to Count Walewski's despatches, which he believed would satisfy the public feeling, and there was nothing which would prevent the government from proceeding with the conspiracy bill, although further action would depend on the reply from France to Lord Malmesby's despatches.

FRANCE.—The conspirators, Orsini, Rudio and Pierre, have appealed against their recent sentences.

The men, Changier and Bedina, are authorized to return to France. It was reported that Rudio's sentence would be committal to hard labor for life. The penal law on public security was adopted by a vote of 185 to 1.

The single dissention is said to have been Gen. MoMahon.

ITALY.—Arrests continue to be made at Genoa, and there are various rumors of a Republican plot. The troops were confined to their barracks, and were held ready for instant action. A ship of war had also taken up a position opposite the Republican suburbs of the town, with shotted guns.

TURKEY.—The outrage upon the American Mission family at Jaffa, had been taken up by Mr. Becoun, American Consul and charge de affairs at Constantinople, and the Porte had promised full retribution.

INDIA.—The Bombay mail, with a week's later news, arrived at Suez on the 6th ult. The correspondent of the Times at Malta, telegraphs, that the Commander-in-Chief was at Futtighud, preparing for the invasion of Oude, which would probably be attempted from several points, about the 20th of January. His own column is nearly 15,000 strong, with 100 pieces of ordnance, while at least 10,000 men from other points will be ready to co-operate with him.

Sir Hugh Ross had defeated the rebels at Banda.

The Rajpootna field force, after capturing the strong force of Awah, marched on for Cotah, where disunion prevailed.

Delhi had been placed under the authority of the Punjaub Commissioner, and the authority of the civil powers there is restored, and the army declared broken up.

Large reinforcements of European troops are still required.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says it was stated that Lord Malmesbury has already answered Count Walewski's despatch in a tone and spirit becoming a British Minister. It expresses a desire to cultivate the best relations with France, and remain in Alliance with her, but declares that the right of Asylum shall be maintained.

WASHINGTON, March 16.

SENATE.—The passage between Messrs. Green and Cameron, produced a complete stillness in the Senate. Mr. Green exhibited the most irritation of the two, while Cameron was cool, and to unprejudiced lookers on, seemed to have the best side of the case. The difficulty was a mere interlude, and subsided as rapidly as it arose—Quiet was soon restored.

Mr. Doolittle, speaking to a motion to adjourn, took occasion to refer to the evils of night sessions, which, besides obstructing the business, produced an unpleasantness that lessened the dignity of the Senate.

At 3 o'clock Mr. Biggs defined his position as a Senator from N. C., as taking no extreme view, but as committed to the Lecompton Constitution. Mr. Hamlin moved to adjourn. Mr. Slidell, who was in the chair, decided that the Senate could not, inasmuch as a resolution was passed for the Sergeant-at-Arms to bring in the absentees.

An appeal was taken and laid upon the table—ayes 20, nays 9. Things here seemed at a dead lock, when Mr. Hamlin propounded a case. If the sergeant-at-arms had to go to the several homes of the absentees in different parts of the country, is it the opinion of the Chair the Senators must sit day and night until he return?

Mr. Slidell—That is the opinion of the chair.

Mr. Hamlin complimented the chair for its courage in giving such an opinion.

Mr. Gwin took the chair temporarily, and Mr. Slidell spoke in favor of the bill.

Mr. Doolittle moved an adjournment—rejected, ayes 16, nays 22.

Mr. Wilson moved a postponement until to-morrow. Rejected, ayes 15, nays 22.

Mr. Chandler moved a recess for six hours—lost.

Four o'clock.—Numerous motions were made—the yeas and nays called on till 5 o'clock.

The following is a description of the scene to which reference is made above.

An attempt last night in the Senate to come to a vote on the Kansas bill, led to the session being protracted all night. After midnight the following scene occurred:

Mr. Green declared that unless he could have a distinct understanding that the vote shall be taken on Monday he would go on.

Mr. Cameron was disgusted with these fruitless attempts. Who is the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. Green, he asked. He is but our peer. Is he the commander of the Senate majority that adjourned over from Thursday to Tuesday to attend a political pageant at Richmond. Mr. Green—that is not true. Cameron—do I understand the gentleman to say that I state what is not true? Green—I said—[here the Vice Pres't called both Senators to order.] Mr. Cameron—The Senator has applied to me hard language; I will also use harsh terms and say that it is an untruth.

Mr. Green—You're a liar.

The Vice President again called both gentlemen to order.

Cameron asked pardon of the Senate, though he still thought he was not wrong; for anything he had said to that gentleman he was responsible.

Mr. Green denied Mr. Cameron's right to dictate to members. The Senator does me injustice; he knows he does me injustice. He (Green) was man enough to meet him or any other slanderer. The slander of the Senator will reverberate upon his own head.

The Vice President emphatically called the gentleman to order.

Mr. Green said that he had said enough to the Senator in this Chamber, out of the Chamber he would use a more appropriate epithet, the epithet which belonged to the West. He would not infringe upon the propriety of the Senate.—If there is any animosity to settle, it must be done outside. He did not go to that side of the Chamber to dictate, but to ask when it would be agreeable for them to vote. He did not go individually, but as an agent of the Committee. He would settle the matter with the Senator in five minutes—snapping his fingers as he spoke.

Wisconsin Legislature.

MADISON, March 15, 7 P. M.

SENATE—No quorum. Adjourned.

MADISON, 16, 9 A. M.

Petitions—For relief of Wm. Porter, of Green County; for repeal of charter of Delavan, Walworth Co.

Bills Introduced—To provide for the incorporation of academies and other institutions of learning; to regulate fees for publishing tax sales and legal notices; to amend chapter 4, title 3 of the code; to repeal act incorporating village of Delavan.

Resolutions Introduced—Instructing Joint Committee on claims to visit the institution for the education of the deaf and dumb and blind, and ascertain the amount necessary to supply wants for ensuing year—laid on the table; appointing a committee of three to investigate charges against Senator Chappell—laid over.

Bills Passed—to authorize tenants in common to sue each other in certain cases; to fix compensation of witnesses in attendance on Legislative committees; a bill relating to perjury; to provide for keeping insane persons; to submit the question of division of Calumet County to a vote of the people; to amend act incorporating village of Lake Mills.

After considering the per diem which should be allowed to clerks of the different committees, the Senate adjourned to 7½ P. M.

Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, March 17.

The Republican Senators held a caucus this morning, to determine their mode of proceeding on the Kansas bill. While they prefer that the debate be conducted during the usual hours, they will consent to evening sessions, if necessary, but they do not want the vote taken this week, being desirous that Senator Douglas should be on hand when the vote is taken. He is too ill, it is supposed, to address the Senate before that time.

The Secretary to-day, accepted all the bills for Treasury Notes, made at a rate of interest under 5 per cent. These embodied over $2,000,000.—To all bidders above 5 per cent, the balance of the notes were awarded pro-rata.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 17

A Plea for a Post Office.

An extraordinary "card" signed "J. R. SHARPSTEIN," and addressed "to the readers of the News," appears in that paper of yesterday morning. It is in the nature of an apology and explanation, the object being to do away, in the minds of the People at home and the President at Washington, the very prevalent impression that the editor of the News has been on both sides of the Lecompton fence. Our readers understand, of course, that Col. SHARPSTEIN, the editor and proprietor of the News, occupies an anxious seat in the Post Office; that Mr. BUCHANAN has made the unhesitating endorsement of the Lecompton Villainy the test of orthodox Democracy and the tenure of Federal Office; that sundry indiscreet Postmasters, themselves nominees of Mr. BUCHANAN, having rashly ventured to exercise the liberty of speech and the right of independent opinion on this question, have found themselves suddenly decapitated; and that this untimely fate has befallen, not only those who now oppose the Lecompton Swindle, but those also who ever opposed it. In short, Mr. BUCHANAN suspects the democracy and questions the capacity of any Federal Office-holder, who was not a Lecompton man from the start.

Now it unfortunately happens that the News, last fall, was thoroughly and, no doubt, sincerely opposed to the Lecompton Swindle. The News denounced it as the greatest outrage of the day. The News held, that the Democratic Party could not, without abandoning all its principles and violating all its pledges, endorse so palpable a fraud. The News characterized it, as much more of a "Black Republican," than a "Democratic" measure. And the News repeatedly and triumphantly asserted that President BUCHANAN himself and all his Cabinet concurred, with the great mass of the Democratic Party, in determined hostility to Lecompton. And these things are now rising up to judgment against the News. Some enterprising competitor for the City Post Office, has doubtless furnished the President with proof slips of these heretical doctrines of the News. There is reason to believe that the Executive sword hangs over the head of the editor of the News, suspended by a single hair. How shall its fatal fall be averted? How shall the President be propitiated? How shall the News' record be amended? Vide the News of yesterday for an answer to these pregnant queries. Col. SHARPSTEIN has "gone and done it."

Premising that certain evil disposed persons and papers in this State, have frequently quoted, an extract from the News of the 20th of November last, to prove that it has changed front on the Lecompton issue, and have even insinuated that this change was attributable to the fact that the editor held an office under the Administration, Col. SHARPSTEIN deems it due to the readers of the News, to the Administration and to himself, to make an explanation. And this is the substance of such explanation:

1. That the editorial charge of the News was at that time (20th November last) confided to another gentleman.

2. That the course of the Lecompton Convention, in regard to the submission of the Constitution, was at that time unknown.

2. That Col. Sharpstein never saw the obnoxious article of the 20th November, till he saw it in the News, and then pronounced it "premature."

4. That if any article conflicting with the President's views was subsequently published in the News, it was during Col. SHARPSTEIN's absence from the State.

5. But this we must give in the Colonel's own "umble" language:

> That my honest and firm conviction, after a careful examination of all the arguments which have been published pro and con., is, that the President is right, and I will add that I would not, as a democrat, place myself in a position antagonistic to that of a National Democratic Administration, without being first thoroughly convinced, that the Administration was wrong.

However it may be with "the readers of the News," we do not see how Mr. Buchanan can resist this humble apology. Col. Sharpstein disclaims all responsibility for anything that ever appeared in the News, antagonistic to the President's views about Lecompton; professes unbounding faith in this novel test of Democracy; goes for the swindle con amore; and has certainly made out a clear title to Federal favors, under an Administration which exacts as a pre-requisite and main qualification for office, slavish submission to the President's will. How many other Federal office-holders in Wisconsin are prepared to follow the example of our City Postmaster and make lowly obeisance to the cap of Gessler? Is there not, among them all, one William Tell, to spurn the degrading service and stand up for the Rights and Liberties of the People of Kansas?

The Banks and the Treasurer.

The Madison Argus publishes the following correspondence, and takes the occasion to endorse the letter of Mr. VAN SLYKE, and to condemn the reply of Mr. Treasurer HASTINGS:

> DANE COUNTY BANK, Madison, Wis., March 5th, 1858.

Hon. S. D. Hastings, Treasurer:—

DEAR SIR:—I have heard it intimated, by good authority, that you are asserting the notes of this bank that pass into the state treasury, for the purpose of demanding coin, through the hands of a third party.

If this should be so—and from the notes that are in the treasury I can ascertain—I shall most assuredly bring complaint before such authority as will inquire into the facts.

I trust that you have had no such singling out of any institution, here or elsewhere, and shall be pleased to be convinced that my information is not correct in this particular.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
(Signed,) N. B. VAN SLYKE, Pres't.

> OFFICE STATE TREASURER, Madison, March 9, '58.

N. B. Van Slyke, President Dane County Bank, Madison:

DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of your favor of the 5th instant, and in reply I would say, that it would have been entirely in harmony with my feelings, and in accordance with my practice, to have given a full and explicit answer to any communication couched in courteous and gentlemanly language, and it is therefore with extreme regret that I am compelled to say that the language of your communication of the 5th inst. is such as to make it impossible for me to take any fur her notice of it.

Your obedient servant,
SAMUEL D. HASTINGS.

Our own opinion is, that Mr. VAN SLYKE, if his insulting letter was to be noticed at all, got precisely the sort of answer he deserved. The Madison Journal takes occasion to say that the insinuations of Mr. VAN SLYKE were uncalled for and groundless.

☞ The Report of trade of the Canadas for the year 1857 has not yet been published, but the following estimate is understood to be ascertained to as nearly correct by the Custom's Department: value of Imports £9,600,000; value of exports £6,011,00; to which must be added the interest of the public debt (£225,000; also the interest on bank stock and other securities.—The revenue from customs this year is definitely stated at £980,178, less by 147,380 than for 1856?

For the Daily Sentinel.

The Fox River Valley Rail Road.

MR. EDITOR:—There appeared in your paper of the 11th inst., an article over the signature of the President of the above named Railroad Co., which I think deserves some attention, as it seems to have been published for effect in certain quarters, and to mislead the public generally. Mr. Young complains that "this enterprise has been much neglected by the people in this city." If this be true, I think there are not a few who can say that "this enterprise" has not neglected them, and that it is not much disposed to cease its importunities, some of which are not of a character calculated to inspire public confidence in the enterprise itself, or the present management of it. Mr. Young omits to mention in his article that the city of Milwaukee voted to loan "this enterprise" $84,000 of her bonds, and that our citizens, through misrepresentations, were induced to subscribe for stock to the amount of upwards of $40,000 more—nor does he inform the public why the said city bonds have not been delivered to his Company, and why the subscribers for stock in his Railroad do not respond promptly. One of the prominent reasons why the bonds have not been delivered to the Fox River R. R. Co., is that this Company is acting in bad faith towards the Milwaukee & Beloit R. R. Co., and also towards our city, in repudiating an express agreement and understanding existing between these two Railroad Companies and our city, at the time the vote to loan our city credit to these two companies, was given by our citizens; and as regards the subscribers for the stock of the F. R. V. R. R. Co., responding promptly, it is thought by many that they have pretty generally done so, by informing Mr. Young that under the agreement made with his Co's agent when they subscribed for stock, they are not bound to pay, and having no confidence in the present management of the concern, will not pay until compelled by law.

The President, in the article referred to, says, "an amendment to the charter is now before the Legislature, changing its name to the Milwaukee and Northern Illinois Railroad," and then adds, that "this title expresses the purpose and designs of the project," and that it is to bring into this market the wheat and other products of the best wheat growing country of Illinois," &c. !! To the minds of many, Mr. Y. could have much better expressed "the purpose and design" of his project in obtaining the name of this corporation, by publishing certain other provisions contained in his amendment before the Legislature.

SEC. 4 of said amendment provides as follows: Said company may receive, take and hold in payment, for the stock of said company, any land or other estate, either real, or personal, or mixed, and may sell or lease the same.

SEC. 5. The said company may construct its line of road from its present location, at the State line, near the village of Richmond, in the State of Illinois, on the most eligible route to the city of Milwaukee,

SEC. 6. The said company shall have the right and authority to construct the said Railroad upon and across, over or under, any public or private highway, road, street, or railroad, and over any stream of water, or water course, if the same shall be deemed necessary.

SEC. 7. To connect with other railroads in the State of Illinois, and shall have authority to operate in connection with such roads, or any portion thereof, on such terms as may be agreed upon, shall have power to lease, or purchase the whole, or any part of such road, and to consolidate the capital stock of said company with the capital stock of any company chartered by the State of Illinois, with which the road of said company connects, and such companies shall have full power to place the roads of their consolidated companies under the direction of a joint board.

Now with these sections of the amendment before us, it is plain to see what Mr. Young and his friends, who have control of this Fox R. V. R. R., are driving at. They, in violation of previous agreements with the M. & B. R. R. Co., and in violation of the understanding had with city subscribers of stock, want an independent parallel line to the city of Milwaukee, and to change their route as the Company may chose, to sell or lease the same, to trade and dicker off stock for any lands, real estate, or any kind of property, or lease the same. And be it known to the public, that the Fox R. V. R. R. Co. insist upon these provisions in the said amendment, and to alter the route, consolidate the road with any Illinois Co., or to sell, lease or swop off or dicker off stock for all or any kind of property—swamp lands or marsh lots, old clothes, horses, wooden clocks, or anything else, without the consent of the stockholders—and that this road, or whatever there is of it, would be so dickered off to some Illinois Co., in less than six months, should the amendment, before the Legislature become a law, there is little doubt. That it will ever be built as proposed, few who know much about the present management of the road, have the least expectation.—The amendment is simply designed to render the road a marketable thing, and to enable the present managers to dispose of it after they have collected cash stock subscriptions, and dickered off what stock they can. The people of Milwaukee have had some severe experience in Railroad matters; nor is it supposed they have seen the end of things yet. They have been liberal in encouraging R. R. enterprises, some of which were in bad hands, and will prove a loss to the city and to individuals. The Milwaukee & Superior R. R. is supposed to be one instance of foolish expenditure, and will ultimately prove to be a fizzle. Yet who is there to-day, at all acquainted with that Road, who would not prefer to risk his means in it to investing in the Fox R. V. R. R? Why do the managers of the latter Road object to allow the stockholders to control the selling, leasing, or consolidating the stock with other roads? It is generally supposed that the stockholders are quite as much interested as any other class of persons in Rail-Roads. The object is apparent in this instance, that in such a case the managers could not sell out or make other disposition of the stockholders property, as provided by the proposed amendment, without first consulting the real owners thereof. Why is it that the public have lost all confidence in this enterprise? Simply because of its management, and the pertinacity of the present managers in insisting upon securing the power and control of the Road and its property, without consulting its stockholders, as provided in said amendment. The M. & B. Road is an enterprise worthy of the public confidence, and will, when finished, prove to be of importance to the trade and business of the city. The Fox R. V. Road, at best, can only be a feeder to the M. & B. Road, and any attempt to make it anything else will prove a failure. Mr. Young, in order to make his little branch Road appear large on paper, has given the public a list of Railroads in operation, embracing a circuit of over 1,700 miles, and all, according to the President's notion, directly tributary to this city via the Fox R. V. Road. With equal propriety might Mr. Y. have included all the Railroads on the American continent, and made his figures in proportion. J. H. SILKMAN.

SLAVERY EXCITEMENT.—A mass meeting of citizens of Taylor county, Virginia, was held at Boothesville on the 8th inst., at which the following, among other resolutions, were passed unanimously:

That the five Christian Advocates published in the cities of New York, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago, having become abolition sheets of the rankest character, we ask our commonwealth's attorneys and postmasters to examine them, and if found to be of an unlawful character, to deal with them and their agents as the laws of our State direct.

That we ask as a special favor of the M. E. Church, North, and all other churches that may consider this country a part of their moral vineyard for the future, to send among us only such ministers as have wisdom and grace enough to enable them to preach the Gospel without meddling with the civil institutions of our country.

Complaint Against the City Post Office

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I beg leave to state thro' your columns some of the irregularities of our city P. O., and the utter indifference of the persons employed in that institution, as appears that they must be to every casual observer. Persons who are once elevated to the distinguished position of a Post Office clerk, seem to think that they are a little superior to the rest of mankind; and this conceited superiority very naturally leads to indifference, a great deal of which I see manifested every day.

The principal irregularity is in forwarding and in distribution; letters are not forwarded regularly, neither are they distributed regularly, to which hundreds of our citizens can testify. As an instance, I would here mention that I myself have had letters and papers forwarded to me from the Madison and Janesville Post Offices which I never received—thereby indicating pretty strongly that the defect is in our own office. And it is just exactly so with regard to forwarding: instances have been known where letters remained two and three weeks in the office, as in the case of your correspondent of last summer and others, the repetition of which would be useless.

The most common answer that I have received on applying for letters was, "Nix come heraus," or some other beautiful German epithet, equally provoking; or an indifferent toss of the head just as it happened to be convenient.—Really P. M. Sharpstein must have an indescribable partiality for his German friends, who, by the way, improve not without, for to use the words of the Scottish scribe—

> "The gang in stirks, and some out asses."

It is even so; the whole clique need regeneration as well as any other sinners in the city; and in these days of modern reformation, it does seem to me that a small share of it would very materially benefit the Post Office.

Soliciting the favor of your inserting this in your valuable columns, or otherwise bringing it before the public,

I remain, your ob't servt,
JAS. H. JOHNSTON.

Dr. Livingstone and the Resources of Africa.

A grand farewell banquet, previous to his departure for Africa, was given to Dr. Livingstone, in London, on the 14th ult. Many distinguished personages, including scientific and literary men and members of Parliament, were present. Sir R. Murchison, President of the Royal Geographical Society, who occupied the Chair, announced that, on that very day, the Queen had granted Dr. Livingstone an interview, in the course of which she had expressed the highest wishes for his success, and heartily wished him God speed. Her Majesty had also appointed Dr. Livingstone her Consul to the Portuguese colonies. The Doctor, in rising to return thanks for a toast drank to his success with the greatest enthusiasm, showed unmistakably how much he was affected by the reception he had met with. He said:

> "When I was in Africa I could not but look forward with joyous anticipation to my arrival in my native country; but when I remember how I have been received, and when I reflect that I am now again returning to the scene of my former labors, I am at a loss how to express in words the feelings of my heart. [Loud applause.] In former times, while I was performing what I considered to be my duty in Africa, I felt great pleasure in the work; and now, that I perceive that all eyes are directed to my future conduct, I feel as if I were laid under a load of obligations to do better than I have ever done as yet. [Long cheers] I expect to find for myself no large fortune in that country, [renewed cheers,] nor do I expect to explore any large portions of a new country, but I do hope to find through that part of the country which I have already explored a pathway by means of the river Zambesi which may lead to highlands where Europeans may form a settlement, and where, by opening up communication, and establishing commercial intercourse with the natives of Africa, they may slowly but not the less surely impart to the people of that country the knowledge and the inestimable blessings of Christianity. [Loud cheers.]
>
> I am glad to have connected with me in this expedition my gallant friend, Captain Bedingfield, [hear, hear,] who knows not only what African rivers are, but also what are African fevers. [A laugh.] With his aid I may be able to discover the principles of the river system of that great continent, and if I find that system to be what I think it is, I propose to establish a depot upon the Zambesi, and from that station more especially to examine into that river system, which, according to the statements of the natives, if discovered, would afford a pathway to the country beyond, where cotton, indigo and other raw material might be obtained to any amount. I am happy also in being accompanied by men experienced in geology, in botany, in art and in photography, who will bring back to England reports upon all those points which I alone have attempted to deal with, and very little means at my disposal. [Loud cheers.] The success—if I may call it success—[renewed cheering]—which has attended my former efforts to open up the country mainly depended upon my entering into the feelings and the wishes of the people of the interior of Africa. I found that the tribes in the interior of that country were just as anxious to have a part of the seaboard as I was to open a communication with the interior; and I am quite certain of obtaining the co-operation of those tribes in my next expedition. Should I succeed in my endeavor—should we be able to open communication advantageous to ourselves with the natives of the interior of Africa, it would be our great duty to confer upon them those great benefits of Christianity which have been bestowed upon ourselves. [Cheers.]
>
> Let us not make the same mistake in Africa that we have made in India—(renewed cheering) —but let us take to that country our Christianity with us. (Cheers.) I confess I am not sanguine enough to hope for any speedy result from this expedition, but I am sanguine as to its ultimate result. (Cheers.) I feel convinced that if we can establish a system of free labor in Africa, it will have a most decided influence upon Slavery throughout the world. (Loud cheers.) Success, however, under Providence, depends upon us as Englishmen. I look upon Englishmen as perhaps the most freedom loving people in the world, and I think that the kindly feeling which has been displayed towards me since my return to my native land has arisen from the belief that my efforts might at some future time tend to put an end to the odious traffic in slaves. (Loud cheers.) England has, unfortunately, been compelled to obtain Cotton and other raw material from Slave States, (cheers,) and has thus been the mainstay and support of Slavery in America.—Surely, then, it follows than if we can succeed in obtaining the raw material from other sources than from the Slave States of America we should strike a heavy blow at the system of Slavery itself. (Loud cheers.) I do not wish to arouse expectations in connection with this expedition which may never be realized, but what I want to do is to get in the thin end of the wedge, (cheers,) and then I leave it to be driven home by English energy and English spirit. (Loud cheers.) I cannot express to you in adequate language the sense which I entertain of the kindness which I have received since my return to this country, but I can assure you that I shall retain a grateful recollection of the way you have received me on the eve of my departure from my native land. (Cheers.) Reference has been made in language most kind to Mrs. Livingstone. (Cheers.)
> Now, it is scarcely fair to ask a man to praise his own wife—(laughter)—but I can only say that when I left her at the Cape, telling her that I should return in two years, and when it happened that I was absent four years and a half, I supposed that I should appear before her with a damaged character. (Laughter.) I was, however, forgiven. (Laughter and cheering.) My wife will accompany me in this expedition, and I believe will be most useful to me. She is familiar with the languages of South Africa, she is able to work, she is willing to endure, and she well knows that in that country one must put one's hand to everything. (Loud cheers.) In that country to which I am about to proceed she knows that the wife must be the maid-of-all-work within, while the husband must be the jack-of-all-trades without, and glad am I indeed, that I am to be accompanied by my guardian angel.—(Loud cheering.) Allow me now to say just one word in reference to our able Chairman; let me just tell you that I found a few days back an abstract from an address which he delivered to the great Geographical Society in 1852, and which he had the impudence to send to me. (Loud laughter.) In that address my distinguished friend foreshadowed a great portion of those discoveries which I subsequently made—(laughter)—and all I can now say is, that I hope he will not do the same thing again. [Laughter and long continued applause.]

THE CHARTER OAK CHAIR.—It is said that the famous chair, made from pieces of the old "Charter Oak" for the city of Hartford, and which the Common Council refused to accept and pay for, on the ground that the bill ($375) was an extravagant one, has been purchased by Col. Sam. Colt. The price paid was $500.

MILWAUKEE CITY DIRECTORY
AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER,
FOR 1858-59.

CONTAINING THE NAMES OF THE INHABITANTS their business, or trade, place of business, and residence

A GENERAL BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Of the entire city, in which every branch of business, profession and trade will be alphabetically arranged, and classified under each appropriate heading.

A STREET AND AVENUE DIRECTORY,

Embracing a correct list of every street, lane, alley, and Avenue, where each commences and terminates, and when numbered, the odd and even numbers on each side and corner.

A CITY RECORD,

Replete, relating to Banks, Insurance, Railroads, and other Incorporated Companies, Courts, Churches, Public Institutions, Societies, &c., &c.

Together with the ADVERTISEMENTS of Merchants and Manufacturers.

☞ The subscribers will publish the above Directory on the 15th June next.

☞ The canvass for the names cannot, to insure accuracy, be commenced until May 1st, after the removals and changes have been made for the present year, but the canvass for other information necessary to be compiled will be commenced in the month of April.

☞ By a reference to the Prospectus you will see that we purpose, in addition to the more Directory of names to add a general BUSINESS DIRECTORY and CITY RECORD. Another feature is, in connection with each firm's name we give the name of every individual member of the firm; for example: Smith, Brown & Co., (J. Smith, Wm. Brown and Geo. Jones,) Dry Goods, 25 East Water St.

☞ We flatter ourselves from our long experience, (having been engaged as Directory compilers in New York for the past 10 years,) and from our mode of canvassing, which is to visit every dwelling house and store, and to take every name on a separate slip of paper, and to enter it in ink; (thereby obviating the necessity of recopying the same,) without the least reference to any previous work extant, that our book will prove the most reliable work of the kind ever presented to the Milwaukee public.

☞ Many persons object to advertising in a Directory. This objection will at once be removed, when it is known that the VALUE of the undertaking depends solely upon its advertising patronage.

It will not be amiss here to remark that ours is a home enterprise. No advertisements of Eastern Houses will be solicited, believing this city to be able to support her own institutions, and that we do not err in our judgment we hope to be able to point to you in our forthcoming work sufficient number of advertising pages to corroborate our assertion beyond all peradventure.

The Book will be of octavo size, handsomely printed and well bound.

☞ Advertisements will be inserted on tinted pages conspicuously displayed, at reasonable rates.

☞ Subscription price of the Book, $2 00.

☞ Each of our Canvassers will be provided with a specimen book.

TO ALICE.

TUNE—"Ben Bolt."

Do you remember, sweet Alice, the grove,
Where oft we in confidence met?
When the birds, 'mid its leaves, sang their soft notes of love?
Their melody lingers there yet.
'Neath those, sweet Alice, our hearts met as one,
'Mid the flowers 'neath the willows cool shade—
But those hour blissful hours forever are gone,
In the grave of the past they are laid.

Do you remember, sweet Alice, the glen,
On that bright Sabbath morning so fair?
And the pledge that we gave in warm confidence then,
On the rock as you knelt by me there?
In that cool, mystic glen, sweet Alice, no more
In friendship and love shall we stray—
Those true hearted moments forever are o'er,
They have fled like life's morning away.

A change has come o'er thee, sw. et Alice, I know,
A change from old friendships to new;
But the love that I pledged cannot change here below,
I can give it to none but to you.
In that pure spirit home, sweet Alice, above,
Our love may be free from all care;
May we meet, as we met, in the glen and the grove,
In peace, truth and harmony there.

Milwaukee, March 15th, 1858.

LOUIS NAPOLEON'S BALL ROOM COUP D'ETAT.—The Paris correspondent of the North American writes under date of February 17th:

A funny instance of the length to which etiquette is carried on in the Emperor's parvenus court was exhibited at the Tuileries ball, on Sunday last. Prince Christian of Denmark was there, and it was thought desirable to accommodate him with a seat on the Emperor and Empress.—But, unfortunately, according to imperial etiquette, ambassadors take precedence of all princes not sons or brothers of reigning monarchs.—The Danish Prince comes under neither category, and as ambassadors do not sit at the French court, so the Prince could not be allowed to sit either! It was a knotty point how to "do the civil" properly on the occasion. The Emperor solved it by his genius. He resolved not to sit himself, and ordered away his stool from the side of the Empress, and invited the Prince to stand beside him! The incident almost reminds one of Sheridan's reply, when asked to help a drunken acquaintance out of the gutter, being drunk also himself: 'My dear friend, that is impossible, but I'll lie down beside you!"

AN EXCITING INCIDENT.—The following item is from a late English journal:

A few evenings ago, as the play of Jesse Vere was being performed at the Woolwich Theater, and when a scene in the third act had been reached, in which a "terrific struggle" for the possession of a child takes place between the fond mother and two "hired ruffians," a large Newfoundland dog, which had by some means gained admittance to its owner in the pit, leaped over the heads of the musicians in the orchestra, and flew to the rescue, seizing one of the assassins, and almost dragging him to the ground. It was with difficulty removed and dragged off the stage. The dog, which is the property of the chief engineer of Her Majesty's ship Buffalo, has been habitually accustomed to the society of children, for whom he has on many occasions evinced strong proofs of affection.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN and PROF. DE GRATH.—Franklin brought Electricity from the heavens to earth, but it remained for Prof. De Grath to supply that Electricity to the relief of diseased and suffering mortals—diseases that heretofore baffled the physicians old treatment, such as Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Pains, Stiff Joints, Deafness, Swelling, Palsy, Piles, Skin Diseases, &c., are now cured by Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil in one or two days. Read this letter:

PROF. DE GRATH.—I have been the victim for many years of a Rheumatic affection, and lost the use of my limbs. I could not raise my hand to my head, in short, I was totally helpless. I applied your Electric Oil, and before I had used one bottle I was perfectly restored.—You may refer any sufferers to me.

Seventeenth and Thompson streets.

Mrs. Hutchins is well known in Philadelphia. My Oil has cured 2,000 other Philadelphians, among whom are Geo. W. Ward, Esq., Jos. R. Bacon, R. B. Da Costa, Mrs. Fassit and C. Dower, 502 N. Third st., and others, ad infinitum. 80 S. Eighth, near Chestnut st.

Wood's RESTORATIVE.—Of all the restoratives for the hair that have been invented, Wood's new and recently obtained the first place. It will certainly restore the natural color of the hair, if the directions are followed for a sufficient length of time. It has also produced astonishing effects in bringing out a growth of hair where the head had been previously bald. Wood does not pretend that it will do this in all cases; and we think its popularity is a good recommendation of the virtues which this restorative really possesses. If the roots of the hair are destroyed, no human power can make them grow again; but where there is any vitality left in the root, the restorative will enable it to renew its still to pristine vigor. It has done this repeatedly, where all other remedies had failed. It is, therefore, worth while in all cases to make the experiment. For clearing the head of dandruff, and thoroughly and safely renewing the hair, it has no rival.—Western Patriot.
